

From Wardrobe to Wall: Eco-friendly Yarn Macrame

Inspired by the art of upcycling, local artist Izziyana Suhaimi creates artworks with environmental sustainability in mind. Participants will learn how to breathe life into old items by using them as art materials instead of discarding them. In this workshop, participants will transform t-shirts into balls of yarn and create a macrame wall hanging.

#digital #onsite #excursions #talks #NACAEP
#altphotography #printmaking

PARTICIPANTS WILL GET TO

- build awareness about the dangers of fast fashion.
- be exposed to how a local and international artists upcycle materials to make art.
- learn different macrame knotting techniques

DURATION

- can be customised from 2 hrs onwards